

From left are Andrew Xiao, Dr. Gulimina Mahamuti and Meiyen Timberlake at the 2014 Ohio Music Teachers Association/Graves Piano Solo and Ensemble Competition.

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Timberlake, Xiao place second at piano event

MANSFIELD — At the most recent 2014 Ohio Music Teachers Association/Graves Piano Solo and Ensemble Competition, Meiyen Timberlake and Andrew Xiao, from Dr. Gulimina Mahamuti Piano Studio, won second place at the Junior Duet Division. Jason Lin and Emily Ghazarian won honorable mention at the Junior Duet Division.

The OhioMTA/Graves Piano Competition is the biggest highlight and one of the most competitive events in the piano world of Ohio. As the second-prize winners, Meiyen Timberlake and Andrew Xiao will be invited to perform at the Winners' Recital on March 23 at the Recital Hall of Graves Piano & Organ in Columbus. Their renditions of the piano duet repertoire, including "Le petit âne blanc" (The Little White Donkey) by Jacques Ibert, and "Spanish Dances," op. 12, no. 3 Con moto by Moritz Moszkowski received excellent remarks from the piano judges and audiences.

For details, visit www.guliminapiano.com.

LIFESTYLE 5B

SCHOOL NEWS IN BRIEF

Friday, March 14, 2014 » News Journal